

Leeds SojoCircle

Promoting faith, reason, compassion, and justice in days of violence and fear

at

24 Regent Terrace Leeds LS6 1NP tel 0113-242 2205

Wednesday 20 March 8.00 pm

Who Runs the World?

Matthew Caygill, Lecturer in History and Politics at Leeds Metropolitan University, will introduce this evening's topic, which will look at the political, economic and social background to the balance of power in our world today.

Wednesday 27 March 8.00 pm
(Part of Holy Week at All Hallows)

Banja Luka: Beyond Conflict – steps towards peace, prosperity and reconciliation

Donald Reeves will talk about the work of the Soul of Europe in Banja Luka, Bosnia, working for the rebuilding of a mosque destroyed by Serb nationalists during the war, and the project's vision for reconciliation and hope throughout Europe. Donald will also be leading the 3-hour service on Good Friday at All Hallows and preaching at our Easter Sunday Service.

Wednesday 10 April 8.00 pm

What is Jihad?

Professor Hafiz Fateh Mohammed of Al Medina Jamia Mosque will introduce a discussion on the much misunderstood Islamic concept of Jihad.

Wednesday 8 May 8.00 pm

Women and Islam

Local poet and anti-war activist Sitara Khan will introduce our discussion on women and Islam, presenting a very different analysis of women's position in Islam from the one that is normally given in the media.

All SojoCircle meetings are preceded by Prayers for Peace at 7.30 pm

all welcome

Part of an international network of discussion groups inspired by the radical Christian magazine Sojourners, meeting to explore issues in response to September 11th 2001 and the 'War on Terrorism'